

Wood sworn in to VVC board

August 23, 2013

DAVID PARDO, DAILY PRESS

Attorney Brandon Wood, right, is sworn onto the Victor Valley College Board of Trustees by board President Lorrie Denson on Thursday afternoon in Victorville. While the board was presented with 12 candidates whom many said were well-qualified, Wood's legal background as a criminal defense attorney and distinction as a certified legal mediator were two reasons he stood out and was appointed as the newest trustee, according to one board member.